

Aikido Doshu to Visit the UK

British Birankai are proud to announce the visit to the UK by Aikido Doshu Moriteru Ueshiba, grandson of the founder of Aikido in June 2010. We are delighted that Waka sensei Ueshiba Mitsuteru and a Hombu dojo shihan will be joining Doshu for this event. A course will be held in Cardiff, South Wales with all three giving instruction.

A new website has been set up for this momentous occasion - book now! Click here to go to the website. Please note that all bookings have to be made in advance via the website and no bookings will be possible at the venue.

From the website:

"We are delighted and honoured that Doshu, Ueshiba Moriteru, has accepted an invitation from the British Aikido Federation, the Scottish Aikido Federation, the United Kingdom Aikikai, British Birankai and the Komyokan Aikido Association to visit and teach in the UK. The seminar will be held from Friday 18th June 2010 to Sunday 20th June 2010 at the Welsh Institute for Sport, Cardiff, South Wales."
